Profile

An innovative and passionate graduate from the Film and Video Production program at SAIT, with hands-on experience in location sound mixing, post-production and the collaborative filmmaking process. I am committed to delivering high-quality results, adapting quickly to challenges, and contributing to team success through reliability, initiative, and a strong work ethic. My professional experience also includes a strong administrative background, where I developed skills in customer relations, document control, payment processing, and operations. My diploma required two years of project-based, team-oriented work environments. My hobbies include soccer, film and TV, and exercise.
